Summer Study: Forgiveness

Join Pastor Miller and Howard County Community College Professor Brian Martin as they explore the topic of forgiveness and Simon Wiesenthal's celebrated memoir, The Sunflower. Wiesenthal—an author, human rights activist, and Holocaust survivor—details his imprisonment in a labor camp and his encounter with a dying SS soldier who asks for forgiveness. What should he do? What would you do? And how might our faith speak to this experience? Wednesdays, July 26 and August 2, at 7 pm in the Wellspring Center on the Lower Level.

C-4 Clothes Closet Volunteers Needed in July!

July and January are St. Andrew's months to volunteer at the Colesville Council of Community Congregations (C-4) Clothes Closet. We need volunteers once a week on Tuesday, Thursday, or Friday morning, anytime from 9 am to 11 am. No experience necessary! Sign up at the Welcome Center. The Clothes Closet is located at 14015 New Hampshire Avenue, just south of the ICC.
